

Download Understanding Gcse Results Slip

Understanding your GCSE results slip | The Student Room

UCI: Unique Candidate Identifier – used to track your results during a modular course. 2: Each course has a separate code: 3: A grade 7 is the equivalent of an A: 4: The spoken language element of GCSE English is given a grade – distinction, merit, pass or not classified: 5: A grade 4 is a 'standard pass' and equivalent to a grade C: 6

Understanding your results slip

To help you understand your results slip, please see the example below. Season: Series: Name: Year: Candidate Number: Reg. Group: UCI: ULN: Key: Note: The UMS balances out differences between exams, so the raw marks you get are converted to a UMS mark, allowing comparisons with other sittings of the same unit.

Have your say: Understanding your GCSE results slip

Here's where you can post a comment about our Understanding your GCSE results slip article. Read the full Understanding your GCSE results slip article and join in the discussion by posting a message below.

I don't understand my GCSE results slip | Kip McGrath ...

For example in the GCSE English Language Foundation paper, there are a maximum 80 marks. If a student gets 56 out of 80, then that's a grade C. Grade boundaries based on raw marks differ depending on whether the student has done a foundation or higher paper.

Results: how to cope on the day

Decide before you go to collect your results whether you want to open them alone or with friends Ask someone you really trust to meet you afterwards so that whatever the news, you can celebrate or ...

Edexcel GCSE results explained for students | Pearson ...

GCSE French, German and Spanish, Maths and Biology, Chemistry and Physics use a 9–1 grading scale. Grades 5–1 are available for foundation tier and for higher tier, grades 9–4 are available (however if the overall result is slightly below the 4 grade boundary, a grade 3 may be awarded).

Understanding your results | Pearson qualifications

Understanding marks and grades. 9-1 awarding FAQs; Calculating your overall BTEC grade: Information for students; Using the BTEC grade calculator; GCSE and A level marks and grades; Converting marks, points and grades; Onscreen, on-demand test results; Understanding your results. GCSE results explained ; A level results explained

Results slips

Grades and marks. Overall results will be shown first with unit results underneath them: For unitised qualifications, your overall qualification and unit uniform marks will be shown in the 'mark' column. For linear qualifications (including the new GCSE (9-1), AS and A Levels), the statement shows your overall qualification grades...